1 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 “These conduct rules are drafted with the intent to allow the Graanendal Homeowners Association (GHOA) and trustees to give effect to its main object i.e. the care, maintenance and upkeep of the estate and security thereof, and to ensure aesthetic uniformity as contained in paragraph 3 of the Constitution.”
- 1.2 The secondary purpose is to ensure good neighbourliness and to foster and advance the harmonious use and enjoyment of the estate for all residents.
- 1.3 The conduct rules are therefore implemented with the intent to give effect to the object of the Constitution and not for the purpose of regulating the relationships between owners and/or residents or to resolve disputes between owners and/or residents.
- 1.4 It is also not the intent of these conduct rules to labour the trustees of the Graanendal Homeowners Association with the obligation to interfere, mediate or resolve personal disputes between owners and/or residents. The office of the trustees should therefore not be regarded as a mechanism to resolve personal disputes between owners and/or residents but rather to enforce the rules to achieve the objects of the estate as envisaged by its constitution.
- 1.5 The conduct rules are binding on all members, residents and guests and when present on the estate, common sense, good neighbourliness, human decency and respect for one another should at all times prevail.
- 1.6 Members and/or residents should take note that notwithstanding the constitution and the conduct rules, national and local legislation remain applicable and aggrieved persons should approach the relevant authorities to redress grievances.
- 1.7 The office of trustees of the Graanendal Homeowners Association is not created or authorised to act as “law enforcement officers.”
